This system consistently generates 83-157 pips ($830-$1570 in cash) per week. You'll discover simple, easy-to-understand, easy-to-use and astonishingly effective techniques that help you jump in and jump out of the market with razor-sharp accuracy. And accuracy means cash in your account. Here's a fact that only the best, most successful traders know about: You don't need complicated, confusing fundamental or technical analysis to trade successfully. Simple systems based on logical, scientifically-sound, and well-tested concepts have been working extremely well -- and will continue to do so for many, many years to come. You see, one of the most destructive myths in trading is... you need to forecast or predict the future to make money in the markets. Nothing could be further from the truth.
