Animus is available to perform at a variety of events, functions and venues. Animus is an implemental group of culturally various musical concepts. An original band, Animus incorporates many musical traditions, ancient and modernistic similar Hellenic Blues, Middle Eastern, Jazz, Spanish, Funk, Latin, Rock, Indian, Jewish Klezmer, African - Animus blends them all! The unorthodox instrumentation and unique original compositions excite the mind, body and soul. Their tight compositional arrangements, endless variety of grooves and tribal rhythms, coupled with spontaneous, passionate improvisation know no boundaries awaken the spirit to get everyone moving to the music. Each composition takes the listener on a unique journey, delving into the emotions of the human soul. In fact, Animus has been nominated for best Roots/World Music Performer 2000 - 2002 by The Philadelphia CityPaper. Animus began in 1995 as an Acoustic duo founded by Bill Koutsouros and Deb Cervone. Bill and Deb had previously played in Black Rainbow, an original Cheltenham based Rock Fusion band. As time went on, the acoustic duo wanted more, adding ever increasing amounts of various musical instruments and musicians... and here we are today! Animus has produced two CD's: "Animus Live at the Tin Angel" "Animus - world fusion" and is currently working on a new recording project. Animus is featured on "Lurainya's Realm" DVD, "Taboo

Glass" documentary video, WYBE's "Culture Shots" TV commercials and has performed live on NBC 10's morning show "10!". Animus has performed abroad in South Africa and Kenya with Eastern College's gospel choir, Angels of Harmony, and has also performed around the United States. Animus' diversity makes them great just about anywhere. Venues range from coffee shops, bookstores, restaurants, bars, clubs, theaters, concert halls, galleries, museums, community centers, churches and synagogues. Animus has performed roving entertainment in traditional festive costumes at Trump Taj Mahal and Foxwoods Casinos. *Upon request we have several traditional belly dancers, ethnic fusion dancers and Hellenic Turkish and Arabic Singers who can perform with us. Animus also performs at wedding celebrations, festivals, benefits, fund-raisers, and private parties. Animus has collaborated extensively with professional dance instructors and teachers at colleges in workshops, classes and performances. Animus also offers educators and students of all ages a unique and enriching assembly program focusing on cultural diversity and unity through music and movement. Animus is...
