Contemporary Gypsy's Odyssey Songs Details: "Your music is as brilliant as ever! Your violin reaches out of my speakers and says 'I am here. You are powerless but to listen.'" - Michael Dickes, Program

Director, KOHO Radio Please join us on a musical odyssey, guided by violin masterful and composer Kim Angelis. 2005 marks Kim's 20th year as a recording artist, and her 15th year -as a touring concert artist.

Career highlights include: *Kim's music used at the 2000 Olympics in Sydney; NBC gives prime-time coverage. *"Esperanza" nominated for Best Instrumental Album, Just Plain Folks Indie Awards, 2001.

*"La Fiesta" also nominated for Best Instrumental Song, 2001. *Kim honored to be voted Best Musician by readers of home-town newspaper, the "Calaveras Enterprise". *"Sweet Nothings", an independent film exclusively featuring music by Kim Angelis, is nominated for Best Score by the International Film Tour, 2003. Some of our favorite quotes describe the music far better than we ever could: "...some of the most beautiful, moving music I've ever heard..." -Marilyn O'Malley, "Victory Review" "...born in the tradition of Romany and churned by the legacy of Paganini." -Jean Bartlett, "Pacifica Tribune" "...inspired performance to a packed house, perfectly accompanied on the guitar by her husband Josef...Kim's fiery performance of Gypsy inspired music, her complete mastery of the violin, held an audience spellbound, till they leapt to their feet in standing ovation. Kim IS her music! Tuck a violin under her chin and this otherwise slight and shy artist becomes a powerful, scintillating dancing presence, somewhere on the continuum between the spirituality of a fiddler on the roof and the ecstatic mysticism of a Sufi dancing." -

Len Atkins, The Sou'wester, Seaview, WA (concert presenter for over 20 years) Thank you so very much!
