Antara Delilah's music is a fusion of folk, jazz, country, pop, and rock, to create a unique California folk experience of perfectly timed harmonies, coupled with deeply thoughtful lyrics. 11 MP3 Songs FOLK: Folk Pop, FOLK: like Joni Details: It's been six and a half years since Antara Delilah joined forces at a songwriting workshop. Their relationship was forged harmonizing on Beatles tunes, but the sum of their resulting partnership has developed into more than just a pair of pretty voices. A fearless songwriting of a unique sort has emerged; one that dares us to stop, connect, and be with one another. For Antara Delilah, inspiration comes from places as far away as Costa Rica, as close to home as the air they breathe, and musical as Joni Mitchell, Annie Lennox and Shawn Colvin. Perhaps the most striking thing about Antara Delilah's music, though, is its elemental nature. Nurtured throughout their lives, much of their music finds meaning in the basic of experiences of love, loss, rebirth and growth. At one moment insightful and poetic, the next powerful and reaching, the evolving nature of their music is at the heart of what draws listeners in. Connecting with an audience is where Antara Delilah's music is at home--whether that be in front of a live audience as evidenced by their 3 year run as Best Local Band (Santa Barbara News-Press Readers Poll 2003, 2002, 2001), through their award winning website (antdeli.com), or through either of their 2 self produced CDs, From Here 2002 and Dua 2000. Fusing elements of pop, folk, jazz, country, bluegrass and rock, their music is undeniably eclectic and effortlessly appealing.
