Russian speed folk - from merciless polkas and crooked tangos to sentimental lovesongs: energetic and fast, but sometimes melancholic too... 11 MP3 Songs WORLD: Polka, WORLD: Eastern European

Details: Apparatschik plays russian speed folk from merciless polkas and crooked tangos to sentimental lovesongs. Based on the sound of the accordion and the balalaika, Apparatschik plays a rugged kind of dance music: energetic and fast, but sometimes melancholic too... The band Apparatschik was founded at the end of the 80's as a four-piece acoustic band. With balalaika, accordion, guitar and acoustic bass, they appeared at parties, street festivals and weddings: plugged or unplugged: no problem! As the years went by, the band developed its own distinctive style; the stages became bigger, and their travels more extensive... By 1994 Apparatschik, now with a new and expanded rhythm section (drums!), had become one of Berlin's most popular bands with sold out concerts in town and growing fame all over the east. Now they will set off for the west: with their fresh and enthusiastic live-appearances and....with their first CD!
