That's what makes businesses succeed or fail: whether or not you're giving customers what they want. Unfortunately most people don't do this. They create a product, business or service and think customers are going to be barreling down their door just waiting to buy. You have to give people what they WANT if you're going to succeed online. Pure and simple. If you do that, then your life will be golden. So I am sure you're wondering: 'How in the world can I figure this out?' Well there's one thing you need to do. It's really simple yet very few people actually do this: Just ASK Them! That's right the secret most million dollar companies use time and time again is they are constantly ASKING their customers. Get this right and you're bound to make a lot of money in your business! But the thing is many people don't know how to do this. They think it's some complicated process that requires you to do a lot of 'techy' stuff to get up and running. They think they have to: Deal with HTML and fancy programming Create fancy graphics Find the right words to say when asking customers what to do Bang their head against the wall trying to figure it out themselves.
