"The brainchild of singer-songwriter David J. Kelley, 2 a.m. Orchestra plays worked up alt-pop with all the ups of a Ben Folds immortalize and all the downs of a Radiohead epic." -Performing Songwriter Magazine

(Vol. 10, Issue 60, May 2003) 10 MP3 Songs FOLK: Folk Pop, POP: Quirky 2 a.m. Orchestra Songs

Details: "From begin to eat up the self highborn release by 2 a.m. Orchestra is a damn fine album...The songs are richly orchestrated, catchy as hell, and oftentimes revel in a dewy eyed wonder of the world.

One of the finer albums of the year and one that reveals its many pleasures with each listening."

-Ink19(Terry Eagan, 2002) "This disc is a stirring listen. You'll listen hard, you'll listen repeatedly, you'll shush your loved ones...not wanting to miss a moment of the pure emotion embodied in these songs. I want to hear everything else they release(d), past, present and future." (southofmainstream.com-1/04)
