Jamaican Gleaner Newspaper  Welcome to the Official site for MOLIN MUSIC Recording Artist, ANNA FISHER! Ms. Fisher has blazed many new trails in recorded and live music. Mastering two very difficult double reed instruments, she has moved the oboe and English horn into styles of music that it is seldom heard. Having studied classical music with some of the greatest legends, Leonard Bernstein, Isaac Stern, Seiji Ozawa she has always had a strong love for the classics but when she stepped away from the orchestra it was Jazz, Reggae and R&B that most inspired her! Actually she loves all styles and is most impressed when artists sing the truth to help humanity better serve itself.  She'd heard Paul McCandless' flawless oboe with Oregon, Paul Winter and throughout Loggins and Messina's "Mother Lode" album as well as in Curtis Mayfield's "Superfly" she could also hear it in Sonny and Chers' "I Got You" and a slight few other Golden Oldies especially Smokey Robinson. Although she was studying for a bachelors degree in oboe she felt a calling to take oboe outside the usual parameters. Shortly after that she was introduced to the oboe stylings of Wind Specialist, Yusef Lateef. Since she wasn't hearing the double reeds in the kind of music she enjoyed as much as she'd like, she decided the time is now to be the difference she wished to hear in her own compositions. Her first song that she wrote with Vincent Licata, "Break the Silence - Stop the Violence" was played on many, many radio stations throughout Hawaii even before it was mastered! Her new sound has fast become popular, as major commercial radio stations and television shows have embraced her sound willingly!  A delightful concoction of tropical island music with hauntingly beautiful key changes soulfully sung through her horns that is guaranteed to paint rainbow on your heart"  Besides blowing her horns, she sings, composes, arranges, teaches and produces. Her latest CD, a collaboration with keyboardist Jawge Hughes of St. Thomas US Virgin Islands as well as many Reggae legends titled, "Yin Yang" was released on MOLIN MUSIC label on March 31, 2004.  Fullfilling a childhood dream, she moved to Hollywood in 1995 to promote her music and has had the opportunity to work with such notable music legends as, Dick Clark, Quincy Jones, Paul Jackson, Jr., Barbara Morrison, Linda Hopkins, Billy Mitchell, Ernie Andrews, John B.
