

Unrestrained: Judicial Excess And The Mind Of The American Lawyer - Robert F. Nagel

DOWNLOAD HERE

Nagel deftly and logically weaves observations about lawyers' training, experiences in law practice, and experiences as judges; well-written, thoughtful book.

R. B. Cole, Choice

In Unrestrained, Robert F. Nagel attempts to explain why, despite almost four decades of conservative and moderate appointments, the Supreme Court continues to intervene aggressively in a wide array of social and political issues. He demonstrates that judges, especially Supreme Court justices, have degraded our political discourse, intensified social conflict, and drained moral confidence, extending to every corner of public life. These include the transformation of gender roles, the rewriting of defamation laws, protection of pornography and offensive language, and the requirement of free public education for the children of illegal aliens.
