A unparalleled immingle of definitive soft and traditional Klezmer flute. Done those 16 Jewish melodies original compositions, the soft and flute strive, splash, weave, wind, and dance and cry and laugh; circling each other with voices ancient and ever-new. 16 MP3 Songs FOLK: Traditional Folk, WORLD: Eastern European Freylakhs for Two Songs Details: "A passionate spiritual dialogue of two musical rabbis" - that's how audience have described the Alaska Klezmer Duo. The Jewish flute legacy, through biblical, has few proficient practitioners today. The ancient musical tongue speaks fluently through composer and pedagogue Markus Bishko's kle zemer - his vessel of song - the colorful range of the modern flute. Alexander Zlatkovski was trained in the rigorous Russian Classical Tradition. His years in Israel nurtured a passion for Jewish music. Zlatkovski's soft pulsates with rhythm melody, exploring subtle expressive territory previously reserved in Klezmer for the clarinet, violin, trumpet, and flute. No longer on the fringes of the old Klezmer band! Together Messrs. Bishko and Zlatkovski center-stage their instruments through fresh Jewish music at once intensely personal and profoundly traditional.
