Music is a gift and this is my gift to you. Rahel... Pizzazz Creativity are the two words that describe award-winning International Performing Songwriter, Rahel. She offers a repertoire of ethnically diverse, upbeat and uplifting songs with a POSITIVE MESSAGE that are suitable for ALL ages and ALL occasions. Musical styles run the gamut from blues, folk, country, pop, jazz, flamenco rhythms, and gently flowing soothing melodies to children's songs that tickle the imagination. Rahel is a masterful guitarist and powerful and expressive singer. "A woman of great faith, Rahel can cover many emotional bases through the language of music alone. A gifted and talented songwriter, Rahel has a lot to say and she says it well with a beautiful diverse collection of songs." - Vicky Arico; Singer/Songwriter/Artist "Makes my heart feel good." - Julia, age 7 LISTENER's COMMENTS: "Rahel's music sounds smooth, so very modern, and even 'hot'. There are hints of jazz, Middle East blends and further East mantras." - FolkNotes; Israel "Your music is so very calming." - Mariposa Museum, NH "You know how once in a while you just get overwhelmed with emotion? That's what happens when I sit down and listen to your music. Your music is very emotional, revealing, positive and healing." - Bill; Montana "I admire your ability to express and share your spirituality in music." - Steve Blunt; Children's Musician Storyteller BIO Rahel is a musical and spiritual path-paver, an award-winning musician and performing artist. She lived in Israel from 1976-1998 and co-founded organizations that established music programs for babies and young children and that supported budding artists. Rahel currently resides in New Hampshire where she drives a school bus, teaches, and raises her two teens while pursuing her career in music. Rahel lived in Israel from 1976-1998 where she was a regular featured performer at folk clubs and at the annual Jacob's Ladder International Folk Festival

(jlfestival.com). She was a founding member of Israel's original all-woman band, Tofa'ah (tofaah.com), and was described in the folk music monthly, FolkNotes, as a "cornerstone of Israel's 'Anglo' folk music scene" (geocities.com/tzorafolk). A talented and versatile musician, she has performed with bluegrass bands, contemporary music duos trios, theater troupes, and for children. She was instrumental in establishing music classes in day-care facilities for babies and young children, founding the Israel branch of Barbara Cass-Beggs' Listen Like Learn Association, and was a co-founder of the non-profit organization, Tof Miriam; United Women Artists of Israel, providing support, sponsorship and promotion to new and established female artists. Currently a New Hampshire resident, Rahel has been featured in venues including the Mariposa Museum, Borders Cafe, Aesop's Cafe, Toadstool Bookstore, Santos Dumont Coffeehouse, The Round Room, First Friday Coffeehouse, Cafe on the Corner; and at Pumpkin Festivals, Alternative Health Festivals, Concerts on the Oval, Farmer's Markets, Nashua's Annual Winter Stroll, High Hopes Balloon Festival, Wilton Arts Film Festival, Public Libraries in Maryland and NH and more! Her music has been aired on radio stations in the USA including: WERS (Boston), WSMN (New Hampshire), WSIA (Staten Island), KEOS (Texas); in Israel on KOL ISRAEL radio and television; and in Spain, Belgium, Netherlands and New Zealand.
