Progressive Rock Country Protest Techno Liberal Blues for those of us who don't understand the whole "Christians-who-kill-people" thing. John Prine digests Frank Zappa and Bill Hicks. 14 MP3 Songs FOLK: Political, POP: Folky Pop Details: Entertainment for the New American Plantation! An uncomfortably different album for those of us who can't understand how self-proclaimed "Christians" can claim to love the Baby Jesus while simultaneously cheering on their vicious, lying bully of a president as he bombs the intestines out of defenseless Iraqi children and allows poor New Orleans blacks to dehydrate and drown while he plays golf and Condi buys new shoes. A snarky mix of world-weary, ex-Dean supporter protest; rock, blues, country, funk, gospel, and a wee bit'o'the technorrhea. Red-staters, tiny-minded evangelicals, and self-righteous illiterates should definitely look elsewhere. Not all of us find comfort in the prospect of Armageddon through peak oil riots. Come celebrate the circular swirl of American culcha!
