People ask when I started singing, and I dont know what they mean. I feel I was born singing. I wrote my first song at age 15, and have been writing ever since. My music is influenced by jazz, folk, classical, funk, bluegrass and other genres. I love vocal harmonies, and incorporate them whenever possible.

Lyricaly, I am inspired by songwriters whose writing is simple yet powerful, and I strive for that balance in my own work. Artist influences include Sarah McLachlan; Poe; Bird York; PJ Harvey; Norah Jones; Joni Mitchell; Patty Griffin; Bjork; Shawn Colvin. Crazy Quilt is my debut album. Like the relationships that inspired them, the songs range from melancholy to joyful. All songs, recording and mixing by Ginger LaBella.
