

Mp3 Michael R. J. Roth - Seven

DOWNLOAD HERE

Award-winning, original acoustic songs with "the kind of lyrics that make Nashville writers salivate" according to one top songwriter. 7 MP3 Songs FOLK: Modern Folk, COUNTRY: Country Folk Details: First-place lyric winner: Unisong International Song Competition The Great American Song Contest Austin Songwriters Group Dallas Songwriters Association Songwriter Michael R. J. Roth's work has appeared in Rolling Stone and other literary magazines. He was the First Place Lyric Winner of the 2001 Unisong International Song Contest ("Faded Beauty"), First Place Lyric Winner ("Farewell Pennsylvania") in the Great American Song Contest, First and Second Place Lyric Winner in the Austin Songwriters Group ("Farewell, Pennsylvania" and "Santa Fe") and First, Second and Third place Lyric Winner at the Dallas Songwriters Association competition ("There Are No Cowboys in Nashville"; "Samson (I Dreamed I Was a Weapon)"; and "Things Happen Fast"). His song "Morning in the Promised Land" was a finalist in the above competitions as well. "Light of the World" took third place at DSA in the Christian category, and three other songs, including "Weapons of Love" and "Morning in the Promised Land," were finalists there. His song, "My Favorite Christmas Story," co-written with his daughter Lara and Beverly Houston, will appear in 2004 on Dream Bayou Records. It is available at texolamusic.com. "Seven Award-Winning Songs by Michael R. J. Roth" is a home-brewed demo CD showcasing most of the winning songs mentioned above. The arrangements are mainly acoustic guitar and vocals, and it comes in a simple paper jacket so you pay for the music rather than the package. "An AMAZING songwriter who deserves to be heard!" --Mary Dawson, "I Write the Songs" "Deep, profound truth" -- Pete Pat Luboff, authors of 88 Songwriting Wrongs How to Right Them (Writer's Digest Books, 1992). "Your songs are works of art" -- TAXI

DOWNLOAD HERE

Similar manuals: