Dave Brubeck "Will send you soaring!" - Jazz and Blues Review Biography taken from All About Jazz: Rick Eldridge is a native of Richmond, Virginia where he began gigging professionally at 16. He played the piano for several bands. A versatile musician, Rick played several instruments. "I learned to play the instruments that I typically use so that I could arrange and voice them, myself." Soon, he became a bandleader and eventually moved to Virginia Beach. In addition to gigging and working as a studio musician, Rick started a jazz record label company, Pentagram Records, and released his first solo piano CD, "Solo Flights."
