Taking Christian Rap and Gospel Music to Another Plateau.....A NEW WAY OF PRAISE IS COMING.....

16 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Spiritual Rap, HIP HOP/RAP: Southern Style Details: Tarik Kelsaw, aka T-MOB was born Dec. 3, 1978, the youngest of three siblings. He was raised by his mother, with no father figure so he turned to the streets to become a man. In 1998, Tarik found himself with thoughts of suicide. At the age of 16, to sustain his lifestyle he started hustling. In time came sex, more weed, more money and more alcohol. Everybody he hung around lived to hustle, so growing up wasn't pretty but he survived. Tarik found himself involved in kick door robberies, selling and gambling before the age of 18. A month after turning 18, Tarik was arrested for possession of marijuana. The case was built on false information given by a cop, a day in jail, one year probation just slowed him down. Tarik at the age of 19 found life not worth living, too much pain and too much struggle was in his life. He had no one to really trust, so he cried out to God for guidance. Tarik was on the verge of going on a trip out of town to hustle with a partner. He prayed this prayer, "if he doesn't call, I'm not going to call" those were his exact words. Guess what?? No call, that night Tarik and a bunch of guys were at the movies when a young lady came up to them and started witnessing the word of God. His friends were laughing and joking with her, but Tarik knew she was speaking the truth. He talked to her one on one that night after the confrontation. She invited him to church, now look how God works, the exact, I mean the exact same church she invited him to, he was previously invited to by his sister that Sunday. God had moved on his behalf and he found himself at St. Johns United Methodist Downtown. He was born again at the age of 19. His mission now is to reach the streets through rap music. It hasn't been easy, but he still stands as T-MOB (Tarik Man of Blessings.) T-MOB "The General
