Details: Corazon Alegre/Happy Heart is an ideal CD for parents who want to introduce their children to English and Spanish music. Tricias tunes will have you dancing, singing, and playing to a fusion of international rhythms. Tricia Sebastian originally from Corpus Christi, Texas, performs and records bilingual childrens music in the Chicagoland area. Several songs from her first album, Canta Conmigo, have been featured in many childrens compilations CDs and the song El Chocolate was rerecorded in New York City for a national television commercial for Quakers Chocolate Oat Crunch Life Cereal. It was also aired on ABCs hit sitcom Ugly Betty. The Chicago Tribune says, Sebastian's playful, robust soprano could spark a Tex-Mex campfire. As an educator, Tricia directs the Coro de Las Americas childrens choir and the Latin Songs ensemble for the Old Town School of Folk Music where she has also taught bilingual Wiggleworms for many years. Since 2000, Tricia has enjoyed working in the Chicago public schools as a teaching artist for Ravinia Festivals Music Discovery outreach program.
