Fast Mailer Pro is an ultra fast subscription-based mass mailer used by many Internet professionals and online store owners, to notify their customer base about various events and promote their new products and services by sending thousands of emails daily. This program lets you create and manage large mailing lists, and generate personalized email messages utilizing message templates. Fast Mailer Pro lets you define multiple independent SMTP server connections, it utilizes the latest in multithreading technology, to send out emails as fast as it is possible. You are able to easily define messages and insert macro substitution patterns, to be replaced by information from the database, for each recipient, just before dispatching. You can use all the standard message formats like plain text, HTML or even create a rich content message in the Microsoft Outlook Express and export it into the program. Fast Mailer Pro is easy-to-configure and lets you import an email mailing list of subscribers into the internal database quickly and easily. It lets you do filter-based manipulations on the email list, search for duplicate emails and enable or disable.
