Indie rock. more intricate and complex than most rock bands, less pretentious than most "indie" bands, more thoughtful than most lyricists. catchy in a good way...takes a couple listens to catch it, but as soon as you do, you'll hang on for the ride. 7 MP3 Songs ROCK: Emo, ROCK: Punk Details: THIS EP IS OUT OF PRINT...WE ARE SELLING OUR REMAINING AVAILABLE COPIES HERE (LESS THAN 10 REMAIN) AND THIS ALBUM ART/LAYOUT IS TO DIE FOR! (note: you might as well buy Tired of Not Being Away From Here if you aren't a die-hard fan...unless you love great album art...because it has all these songs on it, plus 4 new ones and 5 videos.) ===== Some things some people might care about... -Voted Arizona's Band of the Year in 2003 by The Arizona Republic. -Voted Best Live Band in 2003 by the East Valley Tribune. -Most added band to college radio in 2002. -R&R's Record of the Week in Sept 2002. -Etc... Current status: -Before Braille's debut release, The Rumor gathered some major support at college radio, specialty, and got regular rotation in a few major markets around the country. After returning from the Warped Tour, and now free from the label who released The Rumor, the band is looking into some options for releasing their next full length "Kill the Messenger, Keep the Message" (which is currently under production) from a home that can provide solid distribution and tour support. beforebraille(the band) sunsetalliance(the label) --- lostdutchmandesign(these guys even have their own screen printing to print their shirts...how DIY is that!)
