Ian Crombie, Editor of the newsletter, " Newsong " from the Northern California Songwriters Association, wrote: Grossi plays like a true troubador. Having traveled and performed throughout Europe, Argentina and the Pacific Northwest Grossi's performance polish shows on the tracks of his new record "Affairs of the Heart", his second Cd. Grossi's mello voice complements the excellent guitar work. His songs are honest. "Blink of an Eye" is a very timely song about heroes, drawing thoughts to our troops in Irak, not that this may have been his intention. Grossi not only wrote and performed the songs, but also engineered and produced all the tracks. (April 2003)
