Edgy, funky acoustic rhythms mixed with dark and haunting melodies. 5 MP3 Songs FOLK: Modern Folk, ROCK: Folk Rock Details: "Look out Seattle, we've got a rising star here!" (Madalyn Skylar, Gogirlsmusic.com) The newest release from Camille Bloom "Stripped Down" truly shows the remarkable talent of this singer/songwriter. A purely acoustic EP, this raw and edgy recording allows the listener to experience her emotions as they were originally written - bare and open. Whether you tap your foot to the upbeat "Don't You?" or you connect with the intensity of "Haunting Me" - you will be sure to enjoy this short, but complete acoustic recording. In just over two years, Camille is looking to a very bright future of music. She just recently opened for National acts, including SUGARCULT, Michelle Malone, and Marcus Eaton and the Lobby. She has completed nearly ten tours and has been featured on several radio shows throughout the Northwest. Doubling as a high school teacher during the day - and touring musician by night, Camille stays busy in and out of the spotlight - but you can tell when you see / hear her perform - that the spotlight is where she belongs. "Sultry yet powerful, Camille's music can make even the rain dance." (Mike Galaxy, L.A.'s Indyhits.com)
