From piano bars to bar mitzvahs, new thought churches to concerts, he's drawn upon a variety of styles and influences for his music. In the year 2000 he was diagnosed with Parkinson's disease and after a soul searching break has returned to the stage and recording studio. His previous CD, 'Awkward Dance,' takes a look at life with and without Parkinson's and is also available at cdbaby.com. "I was instantly struck, surprised and delighted by his voice. I found myself drawn into his lyrics by the compelling sound of that voice. Charlie really does show professional poise, talent and maturity in his arrangements and vocal style" Don St. Clair Heartsong Review "Charlie Nimovitz is facing a huge challenge -- Parkinson's Disease. His voice and lyrics were powerful, heartfull, and healing before. Now they are vastly more. His challenge has become a blessing for us all." --Barry Vissell, MD and Joyce Vissell, RN, MS, authors of The Shared Heart, The Heart's Wisdom, and Meant To Be. "I just have to tell you that never in my 35 years has any music touched me, guided me and left me feeling so positive. Your music is a daily part of my life." S. J. "Charlie's music touches me like no one else's. While there is a lot of "feel good" music out there, what is unique about Charlie's music is that it speaks straight to me and makes me feel good about myself. And that's magic." R.J.
