Intelligent acoustic folk music. 10 MP3 Songs FOLK: Modern Folk, BLUES: Folk-Blues Details: Dan Tindall is a singer, songwriter and acoustic musician from Northern Ireland. In the last few years he has released a whole stack of online EPs and single tracks, as well as the 2007 online album 'Post-Industrial Polka'. He has also produced two actual CDs in 2005 and 2006 - and has now finally got round to producing a new CD for 2008. Following the success of the online 4 track EP of the same name, 'The Folks Underground' is a full length offering which adds 6 brand new songs to the original. Recorded in a setting of rural seclusion, the songs offer up social and political satire, personal insight, and a deep sense of the mistrust that underpins the everyday lives of all of us. Wars, and rumours of wars, pervade this album - as does the need to say the sometimes unspoken. There are slow songs, fast songs, and songs somewhere in between - and not an electric or electronic instrument in sight. Recommended for lovers of lyric, honesty and bizarre insight. People who are interested in Bob Dylan Lou Reed Loudon Wainwright III should consider this download.
