What you've been looking for in a Worshipful, easy listening CD. Enjoyable for the entire family. 17 MP3 Songs GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel, GOSPEL: Traditional Gospel Details: The MOMENTS OF SOLITUDE Volumes are a collection of intimate worship selections for your time of meditation on God. God still speaks to His children and He has much to say to us. He wanted to communicate with us so much that He left us His written Word. How can we desire God's spoken Word, yet not appreciate His Written Word? It is in the passion for His written Word that we receive RHEMA - a personal, life changing Word from God Almighty. Most of the challenges we face are direct results of racing through life, missing that still small voice of our loving and gracious God. In your Moments of Solitude, allow God to speak to your heart. In His presence, discover your potential and purpose in life. EUGENE AND ANDREA The Sound... The Song... The Message... Their testimony illustrates the beauty that is manifested when two become one. BIOGRAPHY Eugene and Andrea are a husband and wife musical duo. For almost ten years, they have been committed to bringing songs of praise and worship to the body of Christ. They have a sound that is easy to embrace and ministers reconciliation, healing, and hope to all. Eugene and Andrea were college sweethearts. Eugene's passion for music led him to pursue keyboard lessons where his skills as a composer and arranger were recognized and developed. Andrea grew up singing in church and has been involved with groups whose styles varied from gospel and contemporary to spirituals and hymns. She learned her greatest appreciation for music while singing with the Tuskegee University Golden Voices Concert Choir, where she received most of her vocal training. As they combine their musical gifts and love for God, they display the wonderful things that happen when two become one. Eugene and Andrea homeschool their four sons and have actively participated in their local church ministry throughout their marriage. They volunteer in the True Rock Ministries' Children and Youth departments as teachers and assist in music programs. Eugene is a keyboard player for the worship teams. Andrea has served as a worship leader and vocal coach in the music department and currently functions as a soloist. In addition, they have participated with InterVarsity Christian Fellowship as volunteer campus staff and shared in worship during regional conferences for large and small groups. Through their ministry of music, Eugene and Andrea's aim has been to create songs that provoke listeners to thirst for God and long for His presence. In 2002, they co-produced their first CD, Moments of Solitude. Their latest CD, Covenant of Love, was released Spring 2003. These projects have received numerous praise reports. People from all ages, denominations, and cultures have shared how these CDs have added passion to their devotion and quiet time with the Lord. More importantly, they have been used as tools for evangelical outreach to the unchurched and have spiritually inspired many lives toward change. Articles JAM - Jesus And Me DEC 2003-FEB 2004 Urban Ministries INC.
