Britpop meets rock .A perfect blend of rhythmic guitars and groovy basslines meets solid drums and storyline vocals ....Its just what the doctor ordered . 15 MP3 Songs POP: British Pop, POP: Beatles-pop
Details: "Guitar music ? " You better believe it . This is music you can dance to ,sing along to , play along to , make love to , drive your car very fast to and even park your car and eat a sandwich to . ( preferably peanut butter ) "Jon Gerrard sings with a voice that would charm the angels" was one quote made by his Great Granny . Another was " That band "Split" are so good that when I die , I want them to play at my funeral ". Two weeks later they did after she died stage diving at a Celine Dion concert . Jon did sing like an angel on that sad day . John Vincent Mcpherson played his guitar like a man possessed . Stephen ( Smitty ) Smith's guitar sounded like heaven itself . Kevin Worsdale used fingers he didnt know he had on his bass guitar and Mark Mcguinness and Chrissy Mcsorley played some drums . The minister liked the music so much He sold the church and used the proceeds to record Jon and the band . Jon said " Miracles do happen , and we have my Great Granny to thank . She's with us everywhere we go now ....Because I got her cremated and we use her urn as a weight for the kick drum . So come along and join Jon and his band Split on a roller coaster of a good old British music ride . and dont let Jon's Great Grannys leap be in vain .
