With their soul-drenched Hammond Organ-driven band group The Po' Boyz is to make a splash on the North American jazz scene. Soulful, bluesy and downright funky The Po' Boyz blend together an original sound of 1960's Hammond Organ Jazz, New Orleans funk with the hard edge of delta blues. Playing a mixed bag of blues, the 'funk funk', groove and almost all original music, The Po' Boyz are a delightful addition to any groovy or jamming jazz bill. HIGH ON THE BAYOU - 2005 The Po' Boyz have just independently released their first recording HIGH ON THE BAYOU set to be available by early June 2005. Recorded in Los Angeles, CA by Keith Hollis' father master recording engineer Gary Ladinsky and featuring special guests 80 year old blues master Ms. Mickey Champion on vocals, track #4, as well as guitar virtuoso Rodney "BR" Millon on track #5.
