La Rua's sound is a fresh mix of soulful guitar-driven music and catchy radio-ready melodies, performed with the energy and passion of a band that loves every second of being on stage. 12 MP3 Songs LATIN: Rock en Espanol, LATIN: Latin Pop Details: La Ra, (larua.net) Charlottes premier Latin Rock band, began in 2002 in Charlotte, NC thanks to three curious and eager musicians from Ecuador - Jorge Loor (guitar, lead vocals), Juan Miguel Marin (drums, lead vocals), and Juan Pablo Chavez (bass, vocals). Thanks to the addition of Venezuelan Tony Arreaza (guitar, vocals) and Ecuadorian Herman Marin (keyboard, percussion, vocals), brother of drummer Juan Miguel Marin, La Ra soon became an energetic quintet. La Ra has opened sold-out shows for multi-Grammy nominees Los Lonely Boys, Grammy-winners Molotov, and has toured with multi-Grammy nominees Los Amigos Invisibles. On Monday, January 24, 2005, La Ra released its debut album, Una Noche de Abril (A Night in April) and received its first official review. The Charlotte Observers Courtney Devores gave La Ras debut album an A. LA RA DELIVERS A SOLID DEBUT- Although all of the lyrics are sung in Spanish, non-Spanish speaking listeners wont have a problem interpreting the emotions in the songs. La Ras first music video, El Chanchito (The Piggy bank), was filmed and premiered in July of 2005. Produced by Steve Saxon from SAXON HD, El Chanchito was the first HD (high definition) music video shot in the Carolinas. Soon after el El Chanchitos video premiere at The Visulite Theatre, the video aired on MTV Espaol, Mun2, and it was chosen as Buzz Viideo on LATV. El Chanchito continues to be in constant rotation. Released in March 2006, La Ras second music video, La Jeva tells the story of five men falling for the same woman, and how, in the end, she breaks all of their hearts. Also filmed and directed by Steve Saxon, this is the second music video shot in HD (high definition) format in the Carolinas. Selected by Creative Loafing as Best Live Band in 2005, La Ra never sits still. In 2004, La Ra created Carlotan Rock the regions first Latin Rock festival. La Ra is currently planning Carlotan Rock 2006(carlotanrock.com), and looks to establish this yearly festival as a key event in the nations growing Latin Rock scene. La Ra has received national coverage in HARP PASTE magazine, and has had numerous covers and articles written in The Charlotte Observer, Creative Loafing, La Noticia, Primera Fila, Que Pasa?, Reven and numerous websites such as charlottelivemusic, enchufate, movimientofabrika, and radio stations such as NPR, La Tremenda (Charlotte, NC) and La Mega Estacin (Caracas, Venezuela).
