This is unique, catchy, jazz/pop, with great melodies and top-level jazz instrumentation. It's 'summery', it's 'up', with some fine lyrics. A bit Latin, some folk elements, some rocking, some 'almost' reggae, some 'almost' fusion. 10 MP3 Songs in this album (46:01) ! Related styles: POP: British Pop, JAZZ: Latin Jazz People who are interested in Sting Michael Franks should consider this download. Details: 'Swish It's Everywhere' by Mahabongo is a new album by an exciting new band, put together by Matthew Clark. Written and arranged by Matthew, who sings and plays guitar (and some bamboo flute), the album features some exceptionally talented musicians who have worked with a wide range of contemporary pop and jazz artists. Very long in the pipeline, the ten songs on this album have been selected from Matthew's wide repertoire of songs. The album was released on 17th June 2008 on a new, independent label, mahabongo.com, and is available to purchase, download and to listen to on CD Baby.com. David Abram: clarinet, flute Dean Brodrick: keyboards Fergus Gerrand: percussion Flaky Jake: accordion Greg Lester: electric guitar Ed Macdonald: additional percussion Luvain Maximen: backing vocals Franc OShea: bass Butch Thomas: saxophone Dan Thornton: producer and engineer Darby Todd: drums This is exciting 'jazzy' pop, combining catchy, melodic songs with great musicianship.
