Geo-political, spiritual, and ecological themes explored via didgeridoo and Middle-Eastern percussion. 12 MP3 Songs WORLD: Australian, NEW AGE: New Age Details: I have been playing didgeridoo since 1994 and Middle-Eastern frame drums since 1998. I have performed at Seattle's Folklife Festival, and at other events in Oregon, Washington, and California, and have been featured at retreats in Oregon, Washington, California, Arizona, and New Mexico. My performances include a mixture of solo didgeridoo, solo percussion, and audience participation pieces that include vocals and percussion, and also give a short presentation on the history of the instrument and how different sounds are made. I played with the World-Beat ensemble Breath of Lightning for five years, from March 1997 to Marc 2002, when it disbanded. Coming in November--Organically Grown. Recorded over two days in May, this new CD leans toward jazz, middle-eastern, and world fusion sounds. Besides didjeridu, other instruments on the new CD include acoustic bass, electric guitar, alto saxophone, fiddle, viola, Native flute, Turkish saz, riq, accordion, and frame drum.
