The middle child of 6. My call to the Ministry of Music began with a very Godly man by the name of Willie Willingham. He took me to a church named First Baptist Church of North Fontana(which later became "Loveland Christian Center")pastored by, Chuck Singleton. I started playing the saxophone at age 12, then I worked my way through learning almost every instrument. Then I found the instrument that I loved the most, "piano". It was all she wrote ever since.....This recording is a dedication to not only God, but to the ones He used to get me where I'm at right now..... For those of you who are interested, I am the proud son of Kenneth Goodloe, songwriter and composer of the late 50's, early 60's pop group "The Pentagons"
