One of the best Live Hip Hop Bands of the mid 90's. Had major label interest before they broke up in 1999. Out of California, featuring Bargain Music Guitarist Zippy and Shakedown singer/guitarist Mark Kinyon, Two of today's best bands in California. 10 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Alternative Hip Hop, ROCK: Funk Rock Details: Soldout was one of the best live hip hop bands in California from the mid to late 90's. They were also the first ever act on the up and coming Independent label out of Northern California Root One Music. Before the craze of Kid Rock and Limp Biscuit there was Soldout. They Played a number of shows with long time Sacramento friends Filibuster, as well as with much of the Skunk Records lineup, including Slightly Stoopid, Long Beach Dub All-Stars, and Sublime. Although Soldout is no longer together, One can see what a great band they were by where their members are today. Lead guitarist Zippy is now the man for Huntington Beach's Up and Coming Bargain Music. Singer/Songwriter/Guitarist Mark Kinyon now plays lead and sings for one of California's best bands, Shakedown, whose CD "Call It What You Want" is also available from Root One Music at this site. (cdbaby.com/shakedown) Finally the Bass player of Soldout was Mark Gottlieb, who now is an audio engineer at the world famous Hit Factory in New York. Be sure to check out this early album from some of California's hottest musicians of today.
