WORLD: Reggae, WORLD: Island Details: This album will keep reggae fans focused on cultural music, it's a remix of the Rhythmic Stay At Home song by the late great Dennis Brown for Joe Gibbs and Errol Thompson back in 1976. Some of the best reggae artists have worked on this album to name a few; Turbulence, Anthony B, Luciano, Sizzla, Capleton, George Nooks, Natural Black, Mickey General and Lady G. Turbulence, the harmonizing deejay has scored hits in the roots and dancehall genres as a solo artist and on duet (with sultry songstress Sasha). His vocal delivery is both passionate and raw as he easily moves from conscious tune to love song. Turbulence has won fans and positive press through well-crafted live performance. The Hype is Turbulence's title track on this album addressing the fake rasta. Anthony B is an unsung hero of conscious dancehall music. He consistently voices thought-provoking hook-laden songs that ride the underground of the dancehall mix. Anthony B has developed an international fan base with his impressive live performance and steady touring schedule. He is one of reggae's finest lyricists with sharp and insightful verses that he cleverly weaves into 'thugged out' deejay verses. His intelligence and humor have distinguished him in the crowded deejay field and earned him the respect of producers and selectors alike. Shotta Leroy is his track on this album denouncing the killing and shooting in the world and pleading to the youth to put their guns down. Luciano is one of reggae's most familiar voices. Through extensive touring, Luciano carries the torch for roots and culture and the message of Rastafari to a new generation of listeners. Luciano is a true reggae ambassador with many international hits to his credit (It's Me Again Jah, Sweep Over My Soul). One of his best album releases this year is (Now and Forever:Message For Life)on Mighty Man label check that one out. His track on this album title Scribes And Pharises speaks about the ups and downs of life and encourages us all to hold onto our faith. Sizzla is one of the most influential and popular contemporary artists in reggae. Since bursting onto the scene as a solo artist in 1998, he has recorded album after album with hit tunes. His unique vocal style and wide ranging subject matter in his songs have earned him international acclaim while maintaining credibility with hard core dancehall audience. Sizzla track on this various artists album 'Love and Care spea'k for it self. Capleton is one of reggae's most distinctive figures. His iconic image and powerful voice has earned him an international audience that he has maintained for over ten years. Capleton,(a.k.a.the Prophet)has mounted a strong track record on the Jamaican Charts. It was observed recently, that there are three artists ruling jamaica airwaves;Elephant Man, Vybz Kartel and Capleton. With hits like "Fire Time","In Her Heart" and "Blazing Hot",the fire man has make his presence felt. Go Spread The Love is the title track for him on this album the song is basically telling people to give a little love and burn a fire on war. More to come soon!
