Soulful and Smooth R&B!! Recommended if you like Jaheim, Usher, NeYo 1 MP3 Songs URBAN/R&B: Smooth Soul Details: I was born in November on the Caribbean island of Antigua, gained my love for music at an early age and by 5 years old, I was singing and performing around the house with my brothers and sisters for my family. I was influenced by singers such as Marvin Gaye, Michael Jackson, Barry White, Stevie Wonder and Luther Vandross. With the help of my mother I was able to enter local talent shows where I was awarded a few times for my outstanding performances. By the time I turned 10, I was singing in the church choir. By age 12 I began to realize my song writing capabilities and skillfully started writing my own songs and at times performing them at different venues. However, the Caribbean is a tough place for an aspiring R&B artist and like most young boys I got heavily into sports. As I got into my teens I couldn't keep the music out of my head and after one night in a karaoke bar I realized it's what I was meant to do. From that point I decided to rededicate all my energy into my writing singing/performing. I started a group while still in school called, Relentless. After a few performances at well-known venues such as Calypso Spectacular and the Miss Antigua Beauty Pageant, we regrettably broke up. Although a singer by nature, I had other interests such as; track field, archery, cooking and the arts. With regards to instruments, I played the trumpet in the National Orchestra and I am also a single tenor steel pan player. I am now 21 and with my drive, determination, passion and love for music, singing performing, I have something to share and give to the world. Hoping that I will be given that opportunity, I can prove that I am and will be a very valuable asset to the music entertainment industry. People who are interested in should consider this download.
