The Jake of Kate's dreams had been part of her life since she was barely eleven years old. Tonight, during her first sleep in her supposedly haunted new home, he kissed her. And just as she was enjoying this very first bone-melting kiss, she woke up. Annoyed, aroused and determined to get over her obsession with this handsome, laughing, loving dream man, she threw on a robe and headed up to enjoy the moonlit view from the widow's walk at the top of the tower. And Jake was there...in the flesh. Well, occasionally in the flesh. Jake is sure she is the reincarnation of his fiancée who died in 1919. Although Kate remembers him only from her dreams, he insists she must be Caitlin. In almost a hundred years no one else has been able to see him. And, certainly no one else has caused him to take on solid form. Her nearness gives him back his body! She has to be his Caitlin. Besides, she is wearing her crescent charm...the mirror image of the one he was wearing when he was murdered. They need them both. He is convinced she is his soul mate. He desperately wants her to remember where Caitlin hid the charm that will break the ancient curse he is under and possibly reunite them for a lifetime. While she trying to come to terms with this improbable situation and falling in love with him all over again, they must deal some serious magic and lurking evil. His tenuous hold on the earthly plane is failing and some else is trying to get to the charms. Will they find the missing charm before Jake fades away completely? Author: Lloyd, Dee Publisher: Awe-Struck E-Books, Inc.
