Today's students need to know how to find credible, trustworthy sources on the Internet. This skill is not only a necessity for success in school, it is also an important step in becoming a discerning individual in a world full of misinformation. Accessible, age-appropriate language gives readers confidence by teaching them how to navigate the data ocean of the Web and its many information websites. This technology guide is a must-have for any classroom that values quality research skills. Author: Linde, Barbara
