Thomascows version If I were a rich man from the 1964 musical Fiddler on the roof. It was written by Sheldon Harnick and Jerry Bock. The song is performed by Tevye, the main character in the musical, and reflects his dreams of glory. The title is inspired by a 1902 monologue by Sholem Aleichem in Yiddish, Ven ikh bin Rothschild (If I were Rothschild), although the content is quite different. The lyric is based in part on passages from Sholem Aleichem's 1899 short story The Bubble Bursts. Both stories appeared in English in a 1949 collection of stories entitled Tevye's Daughters.
