L. Day A.K.A. 80 PROOF began this movement when he moved away from his hometown of Pittsburgh, PA. Growing up in that fuckin city was ridiculous. We were always referred to as the little "Compton" of the East Coast. Pittsburgh niggaz been bangin and flaggin since the mid 80's now it's like a fuckin epidemic out there. But I lost a lot of peoples to that shit and the streets PERIOD! I want to make it so we have no more losses to take, no more soldiers to lose and not let this fucked up system of our economy and circumstances take us all under. We must continually keep searching for the Light of true wisdom and knowledge. It is in ourselves to make ourselves "God-like" in a sense. WE are the architects of our future. That's why here at 8 BLOCK, we have a mission. The mission is to create a family in hip hop that consists of real niggaz from real backgrounds to make some real music! Thanks for hitting me up, here at the beginning of a whole new movement in rap/hip-hop. Have you heard something on the radio and thought "how in the hell?" Well, I do too! That's why this movement began. I started this for all those with real talent who come from real experiences can get together and put that good talent to use. My plan is have a fully functioning production company within 5 years. Besides the music we also offer a wide selection of graphic design and logo design services. You can email me for beat prices and (Lday610@yahoo.com) for complete details on these services. Hey Schemes! Get at me fam! Shit is movin right now. Oh yeah, a special shout out to my whole family on PARK HILL A.K.A. Killa Hill!
