Inspired by an array of human experiences including love, loss, self-discovery, and triumph, this CD packs a punch for people all around the world, from all walks of life. From the inner struggles with the system of life, to the heated throws of desire, to the power and surprise of love so passionate between king and peasant, to the high octane grooves of Pat Metheny, get ready to be delivered. As a composer, Mr. Beall writes mainly programmatic music with a highly percussive emphasis. People have said his music is like taking a journey through emotions, and it has moved people throughout the world. His works have been performed at the Manhattan School of Music, New England Conservatory, Mannes College of Music, New York University, The College of New Jersey, North Carolina School of the Arts, Music Academy of the West, and the Aspen Music Festival.
