Interesting pop music that pushes the borderlines of rock, r b, jazz and salsa, yet retaining it's own unique APB sound throughout the c.d. . 14 MP3 Songs POP: Today's Top 40, ROCK: Classic Rock
Details: The APB band consists of four accomplished musicians from Los Angeles, starting with the leader AARON BALLESTEROS. Aaron is not only the leader,main song writer, arranger, producer, lead and back ground vocalist for APB, but is also well known for his great drumming with such famous artists such as: Tito Puente, Prince, Carlos Santana, The Beach Boys, James Brown, Los Lobos, Freddie Hubbard, Poncho Sanchez and many more (refer to WWW.APBMUSIC.ORG for more details). GILBERT STOKES, lead singer for APB, was the voice for the Gold and Platinum winning group El Chicano, who had another hit with a remake of the Young Rascals' "Groovin'", as well as the British top five release of "Do You Want Me" (both produced by Aaron Ballesteros). STEVE CARLOS FALOMIR, bass player and back up vocals for APB, is well known for his studio work in and around L.A., but is especially known for his bass playing on the hit record "Together" by the group "Tierra". DENNIS ALVAREZ, guitar and lead vocals for APB, has toured with Bo Donaldson and The Heywoods as well as Tracy "G" (formerly of Dio) and has been seen playing beside Spencer Davis. These four are the core of the band, although other notable artists performed on this cd, such as: Cesar Rosas (of Los Lobos), Poncho Sanchez and Tex Nakamura (of War). Along with this cd, we include a DVD video of one of the songs from the cd.
