Alternative Pop-Rock Songs from a Hungarian-Danish-American musical heart 11 MP3 Songs POP: 70's Pop, ROCK: Modern Rock Details: BIO Five years old he began to read notes and play the accordion - Hungarian, Czechoslovakian and German folk music, as well as international evergreens. In 1972, he was studying classical flute and piano at Budapest Conservatory in Hungary for five years. After graduating, instead of classical music he picked up the guitar and played pop rock music in various bands. In 1975 passed an exam in a school of Entertaining on Piano. Again as a keyboard-player he was on the road for 10 years in western-Europe with different groups (playing Rock, Country, R&B, Pop, Entertaining music). In 1984 settled down in Denmark, where in 1988 had a daughter, Marie He makes living by entertaining at private parties, and in the sparetime by composing music. REVIEWS: Attila Kovacs comes along once in a lifetime. This Danish genius writes a song that is so good, that we lose our minds. We don't know why this happens once in a while, but we suspect it is plainly because the music is so esoterically pro-attractively creative, as to be lost found in the post modern atmosphere of the 21st century "UFO Lady" is so hopefully intrinsic heart felt like nothing since; The song we heard way back in the 70's or 80's that was so fantastically great is like this song. Via horns to composition ; Synthesis to vocal arrangement; Compositional lyrical zeal subtle ultra melodic underpinnings that are faultlessly unendingly brilliant. This is Attila Kovacs. So far beyond genre style let alone history, that it's a vague notion it affects his musical roots; Though he may differ, when he allows us to interview him. This Danish sleeping giant is a mainstream hero of the independent European, Asian American underground, who intrinsically through his music transmigrates to every sonic plateau that one could audio-rainbow-sonically imagine; All men, woman beings of the universe. In post orgasmic meltdown, Attila reached the shores of the pure land of pop. There one finds an amazing breathtaking majesty, nuance all too subtle coercion in his muse. His purely beatific talent manifestation of art via modern pop music is Attila Kovacs in his everyday muse in the three dimensional temporal world. Unbelievable, but true. The fact that as abstract artist prone to independence within the framework of commerce; Attila Kovacs has all of the humility unspoken valor that populate a man of complex emotional, exotic imaginative senses. In song, life, love, philosophy presence of soul, Attila simply stuns. Attila Kovacs music, is so purely joyful from the perspective of the soul that lasts forever; Its innate bliss ecstasy is imbibed through the artistry talent of Attila. We just listened to the sample of "UFO" a million times; Essentially we are musically satisfied until we find another fascinating tune from Attila Kovacs "UFO Lady" is the beginning of a long line of past future spotlights, highlights; Leading to a visionary, altruistic, plethora of dynamics musical passion, that is eternally-Kovacs. We are on board of a musical sonic Nirvana. From dimensional planets systems of infinity; Surely perpetuated by such stone God-good artists as Attila Kovacs, let us journey onward. Attila Kovacs based upon "UFO" alone; Decidedly delightful promising in work of art. Wimsical deep at the same time, as life is on this world. Attila's work is a charming fanciful feat of panoramic subtle craftsmanship adoration. An absolute gem of a pop tune. We are basically speechless. A review from United Global Artist, u-g-aUSA ----- "Attila, In a post 911 world of much despair, anguish, and loss of hope, your music has been a daily comfort for me and my soon to be wife. You see, your song Heaven made me realize what is most important in life. Recently I was run over by a semi-truck and lost both of my legs. Before my incident I thought I was invincible, but now I have learned how important it is to have strong relationships with the ones you love. This song inspired me to go out on a limb and take a chance. I proposed to my girlfriend just this last week. She said Yes! Your song Heaven solidified my vision of a long, loving marriage with my true love Mary. With all the love God has given me to give, James" A fan from USA

----- I like how you have your vocals out there..A shade more snare on the chorus...make it a shade snappier..This is masterable for sure. Great dynamics! Nice concept..this is the future for music IMHO! I like! Uo Lady's a badass tune. I would love to check out the whole cd. Downloading holiday now from your site. Great writing and concept. It is a fine work of art. I love many tracks, with the mastering emphises I can indroduce the full emotion of your great voice will be realized. This is a project that should be heard world wide. I would like to change the order of the tracks some. What an album! Your singing will embarass Pal WAAKTAAR. You sure he did not take vocal lessons from you? (Ah HA!) Track 6 has me in tears. I hear the possibilities on my end. Track order could be changed...?? I hear a different presentation in the track order. You are a great talent! Your vocal talent, the flute work , arrangements, and the captures are impeccable. Attila, I use to work with many serious producers. You are the light back to those experiences..as I consider you a serious producer. A shade more "pad clicks" on the Flute and the air across the blowhole is always appreciated. Bill Roberts,
