Neo-Psychic Blues Rock with a Psychotic Punch. 20 MP3 Songs

BLUES: Rockin' Blues, ROCK: Progressive Rock

Details: In the late 1990's BS44 emerged as a force in progressive blues rock. Fusing modern blues with rock beats, Blue Steel 44 captured the imagination of young listeners. From the early days of "Blue Light Special" to the post-modern groove of "Super-Jealous Woman," BS44 has been leading the way for independent artists. The Ultimate BS44 collects the twenty greatest songs of Blue Steel, stretching from the days when they recorded their songs in their home studio to the time when they recorded with Grammy-winning producer, song writer, and performer Scott Mathews. This collection features the stylings of BS44's two great guitar gods, PJ Wells and Jeff Grau. Lead singer Matt "Luther" Wells and bassist Phil Valochik aren't half bad either, so enjoy! BS44 is and always will be: Matt "Luther" Wells, lead vocals, keyboards Phil "PJ" Wells, lead guitar, rhythm guitar, drum program Phil "Onion" Valochik, bass, rhythm guitar Jeff "The Monster" Grau, lead guitar, rhythm guitar

Additional Musician: Scott "No Nickname" Mathews, drums, percussion, keyboards, sax, and other odd noises...

The following 10 tracks were produced by Scott Mathews at Tiki Town Studios (Red Dress, Super-Jealous Woman, Love You That Way, Headin' On Downtown, Here in Kingston, Stoned Again, Without You, Memphis Train, Poem 94, and Brown Recluse) All others produced by PJ and Matt Wells. !Attention! News Flash! BS44 is currently working on a new album tentatively titled "Drugstore Messiahs" and a new single entitled "Only Fools are Afraid of Love!" Stay Tuned. It is expected to be completed in 2007. For those of you who can't wait, "Recluse" and "Stoned Again" are available right here. So listen and enjoy!
