You can see some reviews below. So what is this album all about. Check it out. Following the success of their debut single 'Where's The Love', and their follow up single "What About Us", which opened at #4 on the UK DMC Urban Update Chart in June, West Coast RnB act Livin' Out Loud is releasing their newest album titled "What About US." "Where's The Love" and "Lately" have also charted on the Hip List and Street Soul charts in Blues and Soul magazine. Slick RnB sounds blend effortlessly with the soft silky vocals of Reuben MacCalla, Sylvia MacCalla, Lisa LaShawn and Martini with contributions from Crisis. Tracks like, "Brokeazz", "Hey Yo" and "What You Came Here For" with their infectious grooves are complimented by the laid-back feel of "You Are My Sunshine/All That Really Matters", "Lately", and "So Amazing". The track "Lately" is currently on both the Blues Soul "Hip List" and the Urban Essentials "Soul Street Chart". The track "Static" is also a fine example of classic West Coast funk, "Make Me Move" and "Had Enough" provide RnB/Pop crossover, while the singles and are simply great songs that give this Soul/RnB/Hip Hop album a real timeless quality.
