This just good Hip-Hop. A little Mid-West chatter, mixed with a New York vibe. Check out a Rap artist who stil loves LYRICS and a couple of really tight beats. 19 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: East Coast, POP: Today's Top 40 Details: Life and Times Of A Hustler is a collection of songs that I have written over the last 10 years of my life. I have always expressed my emotions through my music. As a formally trained percussionist, I fell in love with rap music and all of the drama created by those artist who have become a part of American culture. I found that I was able to dump all of the feeling that I had no control over, while at the same time be creative and actually become a part of something greater than myself and my little World. I started writing rhymes back in the day when rap was just a baby. Now it and I have grown up. I had planned on doing the rap thing up until September 11, 2001. I am originally from Grand Rapids, Michigan but I have lived in Brooklyn off and on since 1995. After that day, I decided to do something with my life, so that those whose lives were interrupted would not be lost in vain. I am an American, first. Everything else is window dressing.
