COUNTRY: Country Pop, COUNTRY: Country Folk Details: See Website: scoutcloudlee.com Cloud's down-home style of celebrating life on our glorious planet and kinship to all things has produced a new sound and motivational stage production which can easily be called "Global Entertainment". Her heartwarming and true-to-life stories are bunched out through her music, which is dynamic, uplifting, contagious and "catchy". Cloud appears on stage in cowboy boots, buckskins, native jewelry and feathers flying. She is a perfect blend of cowgirl and pioneering woman, singing contemporary country and pop music, and telling heart-warming true stories to teach, entertain, and elevate the human spirit. When the Executive Director of the Smithsonian Institute met Cloud, he took her hands and proclaimed, "Young Lady, I would like to cast your image in bronze and stand it in the Smithsonian to represent 'The Spirit of the Pioneering Woman in American Today!'" Cloud is an entertainer with charisma and that special ability to walk on stage and grab any audience until all you can hear is the sound of the audience breathing. She is simply spell-binding as an entertainer.
