Beautiful Stranger Katalina Leon Lily Fontaine is a newscaster and former beauty queen, but those roles don't suit her anymore. She's healing from divorce and ready to make big changes in her life, but first she needs her sexual confidence back. She wants a lover without the risk of heartbreak and considers hiring a male escort as a special treat. Her best friend offers a provocative solution to her request. On her birthday, Lily returns to New Orleans, the place of her birth, to meet a special man. She plans to fly in and fly out for a three-day weekend of cool music, great food and hot sex, with no emotional attachment and no further contact with her "escort". She wants to pay to play-what can go wrong? David is perfect-even if he is eleven years her junior. He's strapping hot, intelligent and knows how to take charge. The attraction is instantaneous. With just the clothes on her back, Lily sheds her old life and follows a beautiful stranger into bayou country for the adventure of a lifetime.
