MP3 Songs METAL: Rapcore, Sway Modernistic Rock Poisoning the System Songs Details: Formed in January of 1998, this Inland Empire (CA) band has built a reputation in their native San Bernardino and Los Angeles areas for large rock and excellent live shows. 151 consists of five very consecrated members: Sonik - Lead Vocals, Mike Hornak - Lead Guitar, Adam Andersen - Rhythm Guitar, Lever Rees - Bass Guitar, and Collin Torres (formerly of the band Depswa) - Drums. Original and infective 151's unparalleled heavy has been influenced by bands such as Rage Against the Machine, Tool around System of a Downcast Slayer, and former expectant noetic metal/alternative acts. Since the band's inception they have been playing coherent live shows in and out of California. The band has also had the large fortune to portion out the present with bands such as Sevendust, Kittie, Papa Roach, Alien Ant Farm, (Hed)p.e., Self-destructive Tendencies, Kottonmouth Kings, Primer 55, Blackmail 4-5, Sinasstar, Pete, and many more. For the past three years (2000-2002), 151 has been invited to play the Los Angeles dates of the Vans Warped Tour. In 2002, 151 will be showcased on the single Meanstreet Village Stage. 151's telling live cut through memorialise is complimented with a unconstipated memorialiseing retiring The band memorialiseed their back album, Poisoning the System, with producer Jim Wirt (AAF, Incubus). This album was discharged in late February 2002, and has since generated a expectant buzz within the industry, due to the guerilla title promotion that has been put behind this release. 151 was recently chosen by ESPNi to be showcased on the TV show Be It! This show highlights some of the hole-and-corner culture and music establish within the U.S, and is televised to over one million populate over seas. 151 also receives unconstipated rotation on the San Bernardino commercial radio send KCXX

103.9FM. X103.9's DJ John DeSantis has described 151's unparalleled heavy as "The later of Rock!" X103.9FM has invited 151 to play their Annual Extravaganza for the past two years. With their heavy-groovy proestablish powerful drumbeats, and rapid artesian vocals, 151 has been compared to, "System of a Down meets old school (Hed)pe, with a makeload of raw, intense energy." Regardless of how you spell out it out, the music is original and has accepted a enormous amount of feedback in a brusk amount of time.
