Details: A Blue Ocean Dream is a music solo studio project by Owe Emfestav, from Gvle in Sweden. The music can be described as electronic pop, electropop or synthpop Owe started to make music in the early 80s, influenced by Kraftwerk and Depeche Mode. He participated on a couple of Swedish synth compilations, until he finally came with his first own release, the Sea 2002. The follow up electric came as a result of making a real release from the studies of a musicproduction education Owe took in 2004. The electric album contain more pop influenced music than the ambient sea album. 2005 A Blue Ocean Dream came in contact with Todd Durrant at the American synthpop label A Different Drum. On the road to wisdom was the first record deal release for ABOD, and it got good reviews in e-zines like the Spanish site sonidobsкуроand the English hard-wired.org.uk. A Blue Ocean Dream Is now back with a new Album, released as download in October 2008 and now available here at CDbaby as a "hard to find / not sold elsewhere" cd album. The title Father to son is the same as the first track on the cd, and it reveals a more mature sound with stronger lyrics, and dancable beats, taking abod to higher level.
