Featuring authentic Appalachian sounds on 14 tracks of traditional Christmas songs in a beautiful acoustic instrumental authenticity. Special guest Tommy Emmanuel (C.G.P.) joins in to spice things up. 14 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Bluegrass, GOSPEL: Country Gospel Details: Music from the mountains has been dubbed as Appalachian style, but within the Appalachian Mountains there are the Blue Ridge Mountains. Tucked in the Blue Ridge Mountains you will find one of the spots richest in history and beauty known as the Great Smoky Mountains. Folks from the Smoky Mountains are known for their music as well as arts and crafts. The music from the Smoky Mountains has a special blend of Appalachian sounds with a hint of German and Irish influence. Smoky Mountain Christmas is pure in authenticity and the renditions of the Christmas Carols played throughout are just as if you were there in the late 1800s. The album includes indigenous song "The Gatlinburg Carol" and a fun mountain version of "Home for the Holidays" with guitar virtuoso Tommy Emmanuel. Featuring: Al Perkins - dobro guitar Tommy Emmanuel - acoustic guitar Stephen Seifert - mountain dulcimer Andy Leftwich - fiddle, mandolin, mandola Sharon Gilchrist - mandolin Byron House - upright bass Donica Christensen - clawhammer banjo Michael Webb - accordion Kenny Holloway - guitar Dutch Noss - guitar Lee Warren - guitar Kaliegh Noss - sleighbells
