Vocals, synthesizers, drum machines. A synthpop symphony. 5 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: Dance, ELECTRONIC: Pop Crossover Details: Ani is a nick name derived from my middle name: anastasis Ani is synth pop. i use digital synthesizers, analog synthesizers, software synthesizers, drum machines and electronic toys like an atari, a speak spell and a yamaha portasound to make my music. I record on a mac using logic Pro. This CD has taken me a while to put out. Friends that told me "you should" or "can i get this on cd.."... The Question was when for me.. *it is just a small E.P., soon i will have a full length and more I wrote "Fill In Your Blanks" as an answer saying i completed a Record. A goal completed. My desire is for others to complete their goal(s). Song Descriptions: -Reason is a love song to my wife. -In Flight is a song i wrote on a plane to Colorado. Such a beautiful place. -Teleprompt was written for the people who live in my tv. The talented actors that get paid to read and pretend. -Say Goodbye is a funny song about people and nostalgic 1980s. -Photographic Memory was written because i believe everyone has a photographic memory. It is so complex to imagine how photographs come into our world through chemcial processes, time, and etc. Yet in our minds it can take no less than .5 sec to recall a memory which is always accompanied with an image.
