The R&B Faces of Anitra Sha'ron Songs Details: Anitra Sha'ron who is an absolute strong Jazzy, R&B Hip Hop, Classic, Gospel outspokenist all wrapped into one. Born in Oakland, California. Anitra Sha'ron began singing in gospel choirs and participating in school and community events in the local area. Anitra Sha'ron wanted more than just singing in choirs and later ventured out on her own joining with studio outspokenists in the Bay Area as lead outspokenist, back-up outspokenist and songwriter. With her enthusiasm gaining an interest in the field of acting, she enrolled in drama courses in San Francisco, CA. She then traveled abroad to Europe appearing (with speaking parts) in the foreign hit movie "The Gift" (filmed in Venice, Italy in boat and train scene) which also enjoyed a successful run in the United States. Uniting with an Italian band in Vicenza, Italy, they formed the group "The Saw Band" (featuring Charm) touring various sites. In West Germany, Anitra Sha'ron had another great opportunity as a solo artist joining with the trio group, "Lip Stick", receiving a commercialized sound recording contract with West Side Music. Continuing her tour as a back-up outspokenist for European Manhattan music recording artists "Guz", "Heiki Barth" and CBS label recording artist "Greg De Neufville." Producers produced other groups "Def Leopard", "White Snake" and many more. Most recently Anitra Sha'ron appeared in the theatrical stage play "Wake Up and Smell the Coffee" performed lead role and understudy roles, guest appearance Lenny Williams from the group (Tower Power) at the Paramount Theater in Oakland, California.
